

Boyz II Men, Never

In this world today
Love is scarce and far away
And your heart gets so afraid to trust someone
All the times he let you down
There was no love to be found
Well it's not the end
There'll be time to mend
And you'll love again

Chorus:
Never, Never let a broken heart
Take a chance for love away
Don't never let it make you fall apart
Never, Never ever let the pain
Take your need for love away
Never, no never

And I know it seems hard
Open up let down your guards
But you owe it to your heart
To try again
Oh comes the time
When we must change
With the past
As thrown away
Don't take the blame
Don't be ashamed
Throw your fears away

Chorus

I know don't be afraid
Or you will never find
Another one you love again
I know that you'll be sorry girl
Be strong before it's too late
Because forever is too long
For you to live in pain
Just don't give up
Please open up to love
to love, to love

Chorus x2
