

Boyz II Men, Visions of a Sunset

Oh, yeah
Oh, yes

Lived all my days
Trying to embrace
Life with my heart
By all the beauty I feel and create

It spins and moves
Flows at my pace
Telling its story
From the tear running down my face

Visions of a sunset
Just appear when I close my eyes
Takes me closer to heaven
When the flute starts to fly
And the violin cries

Confusion leaves
While peace orchestrates
Runs through my veins
And in other seekers, it penetrates, yea

My reason why
The big city air smells so sweet
Takes me through journeys in time
From my youth to as far as I can see

Visions of a sunset
Just appear when I close my eyes
Takes me closer to heaven
When the flute starts to fly
And the violin cries

(It's all I need in my life)
It's all I need and no one
(No one can take your place by my side)
You're all inside of me

Visions of a sunset
Just appear when I close my eyes
Takes me closer to heaven
When the flute starts to fly
And the violin cries

I feel free from all sorrow
Like the wind blows from the sky
Takes me closer to heaven
When the flute starts to fly
And the violin cries
