Boyzone, Believe In Me

I'm been asking all the time
Could I be blind
Hey, I'm kinda feeling
That there's just one reason why
Love won't die
Hey, I'm kinda pleading
Stay by my side
Cos I can't eat, can't sleep
You're the only thing I care about
When you smile, you're so sweet
If I could tell you
The way I feel..

Believe in me, and you'll see That I'm down on my knees, baby Please, believe and you'll see That my life is yours

All the mountains that we climb Day at a time I promise you no heartache Nothing left to hide Swallow my pride Guess you're believing I'm turning the tide

Cos I can't eat, can't sleep You're the only thing I care about When you smile, you're so sweet If I could tell you The way I feel..

Believe in me, and you'll see
That I'm down on my knees, baby
Please, believe and you'll see
That I'm down on my knees, baby
Hoping that you will
Believe in me, and you'll see
That I'm down on my knees, baby
Please, believe and you'll see
That I'm down on my knees, baby...
