

Boz Scaggs, Harbor Lights

Son of a Tokyo Rose
I was bound to wander from home Stranger to whatever I'd awaken to Spun the wheel
Took a shot in the dark One way ticket and a runaway heart A Sailors dream came true the night I dreamed you Through the neon doorways Down the stony streets I fell All hands high side all eyes a wreck I follow Sailing shadows reds and blues Curtains drawn but I saw through The window to your soul and I found you Whoa oh oh oh
The Harbor Lights of Venus shining through the breeze
That brings me back
love Ooooooh
My eyes must be betraying
But that lonesome jukebox playing Something
'bout the Harbor Lights thats calling me Back to some Jamaican Bay Doesn't seem so far away
Keep the change but I'll repay these memories Dawn came in this morning Like some old junked out melody
The words she spoke as we awoke still haunt me
What you feel too
Won't reveal you Let me steal you for my life Whoah oh oh oh
The harbour lights of Venus shining through the
That brings me back
love...
Whoah oh oh oh
That brings me back.. oh to you my love To you my love.. to you my love...
Oooooh
