

BR5-49, Way Too Late (To Go Home Early Now)

(To Go Home Early Now)

C. Mead

I went out last night and stayed out way too long
I looked around and all my friends had gone
I stayed so long that I could not go home

I need a little something what I do not know
I stuck around to see if it would show
I stayed so long that I forgot to go

Now it's way too late
Way too late
Way too late way too late
Way too late to go home early now

Honey turn your back turn your back on me
Because I can't bear bear for you to be Looking at a man not where he's desposed to be
