

Bracket, Everyone Is Telling Me I'll Never Win, If I

Daddy's girl is shopping for a perfect day
And her words are full of empty things to say

Her shit stained smile
Is out of style
It's been that way
For quite a while
Everyone is telling me I'll never win,
If I fall in love with a girl from Marin

Daddy's girl has overflowing confidence
And her world is filling up with empty friends

Her shit stained smile
Is out of style
It's been that way
For quite a while
Everyone is telling me I'll never win,
If I fall in love with a girl from Marin

Daddy's girl is growing colder every day
And our worlds are never gonna be the same

Her shit stained smile
Is out of style
It's been that way
For quite a while
Everyone is telling me I'll never win,
If I fall in love with a girl from Marin
Everyone is telling me I'll never win,
If I fall in love again
