

Bracket, My Demonic Side

I'm in a world of reality
But think again cause it's misery
How come I feel like I'm on the run
Turns a boy into a man?

Can't get through
I'm out in the blue
Look what wou put me through
I'm out in the blue

Tell me this
Would you follow me to hell and back?
Are you living in a broken dream?
I've been hiding my demonic side
Becasue the promises were lies

My world's spinnning in a roundabout
I wake up scared and I scream and shout
What kind of man rides a chicken race?
A boy who wants to be a man

Can't get through
I'm out in the blue
Look what wou put me through
I'm out in the blue

Tell me this
Would you follow me to hell and back?
Are you living in a broken dream?
I've been hiding my demonic side
Becasue the promises were lies

Somebody save me
You'll never understand
You think maybe it's complicated
Baby what you see is never what you get

Would you follow me to hell and back?
Are you living in a broken dream?
I've been hiding my demonic side
Becasue the promises were...
Would you follow me to hell and back?
Are you living in a broken dream?
I've been hiding my demonic side
Becasue the promises were lies
