

Bracket, Warren's Song, Part 1

When I'm all by myself
I need someone to talk to me
Someone who makes me feel like I'm
Not coming to the end

I spend all my time alone
Until I can't take no more
Won't you please help me find
My imaginary. . .

I've never been so lonely
I don't know why
No one has ever shown me
I don't know why

I can't seem to find a way
But I know I've got to try
To make up for lost time
And change the I think

If I had a second chance
I'd try to do it all again
So it makes me wonder why
I am the missing. . .

I've never been so lonely
I don't know why
No one has ever told me
Anything but lies
