

Bracket, Warren's Song, Part 5

If I start to disappear
Will it matter to someone?
Will it matter if I use your gun?

Why does everyone hate me?
Tell me what I've ever done
Show me somewhere else I could run

Will anyone notice
Will anyone notice me now

I hope that when you find me now
I will have no life in me
Maybe that's the only way you'll see

I hope that when you find me now
You will finally believe
This is the only way it should be
