

Brad Sucks, There's Something Wrong

it seems a little strange but i just can't explain why i'm tearing out a page and then i'm sending it out over the ocean and i've been feeling down lately ever since i met you baby people say i'm acting crazy they think i'm over-emotional yeah there's something wrong in my mind yeah (x3)

well now everybody says it's funny but i can't say it seems very funny to me people come and go and i know now that you know that the noises in my throat say i'll take however long that it takes me i can't understand why i need to be your man i had the perfect plan but right now i guess it all escapes me
