

Brad Sucks, Total Breakdown

if you're trying to wreck my life why don't you just smile and have a good time about it i'm always trying to see the bright side of everything you're always down about it and you're always telling me telling me that i might as well give it up again you're gonna do what you want every night every night living with a girlfriend on the verge of total breakdown you and i baby i just don't wanna talk about it and then it's if you mind maybe i'll write a song about it and how it's killing me killing me

that i might as well give it up again
girlfriend on the verge of a total breakdown
