

Braid, Jimmy Go Swimmer

what style he shows swimming past me doesn't he make it look so easy you'll be famous someday go jimmy go go propel your pals in soul the other night i had a dream his teeth gleamed as he wrapped that blue towel around my throat

let me go let me go let me go go jimmy go

i want to shine
i want to replace yours with mine i want to dive head down the water under breathe keep your legs straight breathe keep your eyes wide open

breathe come up for air

i am the heir of air
breathing water
under jimmy's rudder

am i so strange to want to make a change for change's sake i want to get deep down the water under

is he ok?
