

brakence, bugging!

i got a tab on my tongue going 25 over the speed limit i'm bugging if you wanna find love you should watch what kind of beliefs you're putting your trust in get out my car at the beehive i heard the queen died of corruption so i wanna hollow my funds honey keep that, i'm teabagging the cup cos you gave me the butterflies now i'm staying up all night so what can i do

to make me get over you?

i'm letting go of all of my vices i'll make the sacrifice
it's all i can do

i wonder where i went tripped once for fun and i tore a ligament we can't blame this on ignorance i'm falling apart baby i hope you is i'm in for seeing the truth and being the view just weave me anew

all new

(this) shit knocks too hard, hit the left hook on them, the beat causing concussions and he playing my song tryna decode, boy ain't no need for the discussion spread out my heart getting ego checks so eternal my budget and if it's bubblegum pop, why are you still down on your knees saying you love it?

green tea and butterflies
now i'm staying up all night
to make me get over you?

i'm falling apart: did i really start that trend? i'm starting to feel like i never knew my friends my sunken eyes oh weren't they something nice but i should modernize it's all new

all new
so why you wanna link? i'd rather finger fuck strings and i don't know how to be your lust king there's a whole planet for what my money's spent on your god planned me out and i took his hands off no i don't want to be intimate you want me playing you like a instrument but i'm just gonna be listening i'm falling apart baby i hope you did
