

Brand New Sin, Black And Blue

hard to believe in something you just cant see hard to tell yourself sometimes its just me hard to beleive ourselves when its all inside hard to tell yourself when your full of pride

i know you dont beleive it damnations almost through i've almost lost whats all me we've battled hard
we're black and blue

Hard to push away all your fears hard to recapture all those years hard to see with blinders on i dont care no cause now i'm gone..

we've battled hard
we're black and blue
