

Brand New Sin, Did Me Wrong

Alienated and jaded
The flame has faded
Hands bound and powerless
Expect nothing less

The trust, the lust
All seemed a must
The time you lied
Echo inside my mind

And you lied
And pushed it my face
And you lied
And you lied
And pushed it in my face again

Shot down
Left for dead
Forever seeing red
Frustrated and betrayed
Behold what you made
The place, the time
The plan, your crime
No love, there's none
You fking did me wrong

Alienated
Beat down and jaded
Restrained and powerless
Inside, nothingness

Disgraced, confined
And damned and blind
You lied so long
You fking did me wrong

Did me wrong
And you just lied to me
Did me wrong
Did me wrong
And you just lied to me
You just lied
...again
