

Brand New Sin, Running Alone

How much longer
baby tell me when will it end trapped in the pitch black darkness since god knows when throw me a line
the bitch is screamin at me where have you been i loved her but what the hell who was i then

i've had wasted days
it's just my wasted ways.

Runnin' Alone
From the darkness
Runnin' Alone
With all my misery
Runnin' alone
What the hell have Runnin' alone

Rescue me now
save me from the ball and the chain bury me now
i ain't surviving the game

throw me a sign
self-destruction running through my veins Damned for all time Baby i was born in the grave....

Runnin' Alone
From the darkness
Runnin' Alone
With all my misery
Runnin' alone
What the hell have Runnin' alone
