

Brand New Sin, Said And Done

Don't talk to me
Then hide from me
Pacify me with your promises

Don't keep me under
Lock and key
Take me to the brink of my sanity

I can't stay but I can't run away
Hesitation

I'm gonna find my own way through
With or without you
'Cause I can't live without it anymore
I'm gonna take my time
And time is my time
I'm gonna find my own way

What you got to give
Just let me live
Nickels and dimes are all I got
Take my trust
I call your bluff
Lay your cards on the table now
