

Brand New Sin, The Loner

I see myself in a sea of gray Colors fade no light no day Alone i sit wondering where to roam Hoping one day to find my home into what you read take back another day-the key look inside and you will see the man you'll become eventually

What you got is your loneliness
All you got is your loneliness

I look beyond and i see Dismay Little hope no light just pray Can't figure out just what went wrong
I've been a prisoner for way too long
