

Brandi Carlile, Have You Ever have you ever wandered lonely through the wood? and everything it feels just as it should you're part of the life there, part of something good if you've ever wandered lonely through the woods ooooh

if you've ever wandered lonely through the woods.

have you ever stared into a starry sky?
lyin on your back you're askin' why? what's the purpose, I wonder who am I if you've ever stared into a starry sky ooooh, aaaah, aaooaoooh

have you ever been out walking in the snow tried to get back where you were before you always end up not knowing where to go if you've ever been out walking in the snow ooooh, aaaah, aaooaoooh, oooooh, aaooaoooh if you'd ever been out walking, you would know
