

Brandtson, Margot

You are my accident with angel eyes,
My car crash with a perfect little smile,
The kind at thing that changes everything you thought that you knew, (you knew, you knew)
Do you ever feel like someone's looking down the barrel at you?

Is it still raining where you are?
Is it still cloudy outside your window?
Is it still raining where you are?
Does it follow you everywhere you go?

You are a tidal wave with sympathy,
A tsunami ripping through me with such sweet sincerity,
I've gotta, gotta get through this alive, Alive.
And even now I think I'll probably manage somehow to survive.

Is it still raining where you are?
Is it still cloudy outside your window?
Is it still raining where you are?
Does it follow you everywhere you go?

This is comatose,
Just let me out,
Just let me out.

You're my overdose,
Just let me down,
Just let me down.

Is it still raining where you are?
Is it still cloudy outside your window?
Is it still raining where you are?
Does it follow you everywhere you go?

Is it still raining where you are? (Wake up and tell yourself that it's all right.)
Is it still cloudy outside your window? (You don't have to be the one to lie awake tonight.)
Is it still raining where you are? (Wake up and tell yourself that it's all right.)
Does it follow you everywhere you go? (You don't have to be the one to lie awake tonight.)
