

Brandtson, Stop Machine

behind the secrets there's a world to see.
you can find it if you only stop, stop, stop machine.
it's a conspiracy to make you believe in everything you can see. (stop stop stop machine) they keep on telling you it's all for free though it isn't your reality.(stop stop stop machine) it's time to open up your eyes and be the one to stop, stop, stop the machine.

get out
get up
get down
break up
speak up
stop stop stop the machine

behind the door the hide from you and me, breaking fingers so habitually.
you feel a false sense of security, a blanket of hypocrisy.
it's not the way things are supposed to be, and what you get is not what you see.(stop stop stop machine) you're sinking further, you're in way too deep.
get up, get out and shout stop the machine.

stand up, wake up, stop, stop, stop machine.
