

Brandy, Give Me You

Is there a problem?
That you can't solve, whoa
You're all alone
And no one wants to get involved

But I have a friend
He'll always be around (be around)
And He'll never leave you
He will never let you down

[1] - All He said He wants from you
All He said you have to do
Give Me you
All He said He wants from you
All He said you have to do
Give Me you

You're always saying
That love is such a heavy burden
You need someone in your life
Who will give more loving than hurting

He'll never forsake you
He will always be around (be around)
And He'll never leave you
He will never let you down

[Repeat 1]

You can call Him in the morning
You can call Him in the noonday
You can call Him in the evening
Give Him you
You can call Him in the morning
You can call Him in the noonday
You can call Him in the evening
Give Him you
Give Him you....
