

Bratz, Change The World

Sometimes,
I get that over whelmin feelin
So sad, the faces on TV
If i try to make a difference would it help anyway
But than i stop and, to myself i say

CHORUS

So you wanna change the world
What are you waitin for
Say your gonna start right now
What are you waiting for
It only takes one voice, so come on now and shout it out, give a little more
What are you waiting for

Sometimes , i feel a little helpless
Seems like, i cant do a thing
But anything is possible, just you wait and see
Good things happen if you just believe

CHORUS

So you wanna change the world
What are you waitin for
Say your gonna start right now
What are you waiting for
It only takes one voice, so come on now and shout it out, give a little more

Someday, somehow gonna take that step
Cause time is ticking away
Right here, right now before its to late
Gonna face tomorrow today

Don't you wanna change the world
What are you waitin for
Say your gonna start right now
What are you waiting for
It only takes one voice, so come on now and shout it out, give a little more
What are you waiting for

So you wanna change the world
What are you waitin for
Say your gonna start right now
What are you waiting for
It only takes one voice, so come on now and shout it out, give a little more
What are you waiting for
