

Brave Combo, Human

There are no rules
My world is strange
It might shock you
To see I've changed
Cause nothing here
Works anymore
And everyone's insane
I guess we like our backs
Against the wall
Our stupid search
Has finally stalled
Oh yeah, alright, alright okay
We're human, after all

And so I wonder out loud

Since life's so cheap
We have more fun
Playing with
Our loaded guns
And my desires
Are God imposed
I guess I'm number one

Well, maybe this
Is protocol
And there's no way
To break my fall
But, hey alright, alright okay
I'm human, after all

Oh yeah, alright okay
We're human, after all
