The One

Lyrics of The One by Brawl Stars, Good Randoms

Ah, ah, ah, the one (The one)

Oh yeah

The one (The one)

Ooh, alright, uh uh verse

Tilt every night, babe

This is no life

Stuck playing those Mortis games (Yeah baby, baby)

This is a knockout, babe

And you are gone

But these odds, they can't be my fate (No way)

pre-chorus

I felt lost and astray

But that was yesterday

Over with and done

'Cause if you believe in me

Like Rosa believes in Bea

Then I finally found the one

chorus

Yeah, you can be the one

The one that I can trust (The one)

The one to be the clutch (The one)

You know I found the one and

You can, you can be the one

Yeah, you protect the zone (The one)

You never go alone and (The one)

You open up the goal and

You can, you can be the one

verse

Had enough thumbs down, pain

But no more, I won't be blamed

Yeah there's got to be something better (Better, better, the one)

I'm stuck in bronze babe

I can't win a round

And now you know I'm starting to rage

pre-chorus

'Cause I fell on my knees and prayed

'Cause you didn't know your lane

That's over with and done

I need love that never leaves

Like Ruffs is for Eve

Then I've finally found the one

chorus

Yeah, you can be the one

The one that I can trust (The one)

The one to be the clutch (The one)

You know I found the one and

You can, you can be the one

Yeah, you protect the zone (The one)

You never go alone and (The one)

You open up the goal and

You can, you can be the one

The one, alright

I have never felt like this before

You heal me and you score

I will never have that fear nor pain

You know how to play with your main

At long last I can press play again

So babe (Ah, ah, ah)

hook

Yeah, you can be the one
The one that I can trust (The one)
The one to be the clutch (The one)
You know I found the one and
You can, you can be the one
Yeah, you protect the zone (The one)
You never go alone and (The one)
You open up the goal and (Oh baby)
You can be the one
The one that I can trust (I trust)
The one to be the clutch (The one)
You know I found the one and
You can, you can be the one
Yeah, you protect the zone (The one)
You never go alone and (The one)
You open up the goal and (Oh baby)
You can, you can be the
You can, you can be the one
