

Brazil, Escape

Awake
Dreaming
Solemn revery
Too lost
Secret
Link in a broken chain
Eyes are open
Only they don't see
Colour, shape, and terminal velocity

Run away when I feel danger
Danger hides in every stranger
Stranger things have happened
So I feel like being stranger, laughing

All is lost
And all is lost on me
Lorazepam
Says it will set me free
No cold
No heat
Feeling has passed through me
Give me one thing
Escape is all I need

Breathing down my neck you see
Is someone else's destiny
It makes no difference to pretend
So give me all my garmonbozia
Pain and suffering

The right make a world of your own
Escape overrides it all
