

Brazil, Saturn Parkway

blue water
runs deep
blue water
brings sleep

in the valley
sleep comes easy
in the valley
there is no fear of sharks

and since the battles end the river flows red with blood the shark has swam upstream the shark bites everyone and no one seems to notice this gaping wound

at my side
the shark bites deep and red the shark bites until youre dead voices carry
and I hear you

watershed
standing room
curtain call
pull it down
I dont want to have to need you
where are you now?
