

Bread And Juice, Just As You Are

I am searching for a Love that is truly blind.
I am learning that this life is an uphill climb.
I am a sinner desperately in need of a home.
I am cleaner when I'm standing in the shadow of his throne.
Every one of us is different, but in Jesus we are the same.
Every one of us has a unique blend of loves and hurts, hopes, and pains.
So come just as you are;
Just as you were;
Just as you always will be.
Come; You are my brother; You are my sister;
You are my family.
I am a beggar begging for alms of understanding.
I am a sailor, sailing just to find a holy landing.
I am poor in spirit anchored in the sea of my sin.
So I run to Him who calms the seas and stops the wind.
(Jesus said) Come to me you who are weary,
And I will give you rest for your souls.
It doesn't take a formula or theory;
Come to Me and be bold.
Come just as a child would be, meek and mild and free,
Innocently seeking all His grace.
