Bread, I Am

I'm a fake I can't ever write my own lyrics Maybe it's because i don't have any imagination I'm a fake I listen to weird music Music that no one has heard about Maybe it's because i want to be different. I'm a loner I believe in god Sometimes i even read the bible Maybe i should become a catholic or a baptist I'm religious I never tell the truth Not even to myself Maybe i just need attention I'm a liar I eat candles And sometimes i eat worms Maybe i just need a shrink I'm mentally disturbed I bet you didn't see that one coming? Haha
