

Breaking Benjamin, Away

Cold-- Am I

I'm beside myself because there's no one else

Have I grown-- so blind

Only God could save you if you knew your way to the light

So fly away and leave it behind

Just stay awake, there's no where to hide

I see you cause you won't get out of my way

I hear you cause you won't quit screamin my name

I feel you cause you won't stop touchin my skin

I need you-- I'm coming to take you away

Frail and Dry--

I could lose it all but I cannot recall, It's all wrong

Don't cry-- Clear away this hate and we can start to make it alright

So fly away and leave it behind

Return someday with red in your eyes

I see you cause you won't get out of my way

I hear you cause you won't quit screamin my name

I feel you cause you won't stop touchin my skin

I need you-- Coming to take you AWAY!

I see you cause you won't get out of my way

I hear you cause you won't quit screamin my name

I feel you cause you won't stop touching my skin

I need you--- Coming to take you AWAY!

AWAY!!!!!!
