

Breaking Benjamin, Shallow Bay

Come on!

The sun will rise
Another time
The colors blind
Your virgin eyes
I'm so inclined
To make you mine
You're out of line
And out of time

And I float upon a shallow bay
Lift me up until the ground gives way
I'm a California castaway
I don't think you wanna fuck with me

Don't overkill
This painless thrill
It's better still
You're a pretty pill
You'll wait until
You've had your fill
I know you will
I know you will

And I float upon a shallow bay
Lift me up until the ground gives way
I'm a California castaway
I don't think you wanna fuck with me

You live, you learn
