

Breaking Point, Get Up

Well you think that youre safe
Well I just think that youre a waste
Well youve been striving to win
Well you get knocked down again
Get up
Heres your chance now
All eyes are upon you
You better give your all
If you wanna rise up
You got to do what defines you
Cause if you give up, give in, youre gone
Well theyre calling you strange
Well its more like deranged
When they just push you aside
But it keeps you alive
Get up
