

Breaking Point, Show Me A Sign

Could you give me just some kind of sign
To let me know that I'm not wasting my time
I just need a reason to believe
I've lost all visibility
'Cause I can't see just what you mean
By what you're telling me
Should I stay or go, do you even know
It's all a riddle to me

Show me a sign and give me reason to believe
Don't waste my time, just give me some kind of sign
Show me a sign and give me reason to believe
Before this all just fades away, away

Would you tell me 'cause I can't read your mind
I'm so lost but it's not that hard to find
I know exactly what you need
It's become quite evident, just what you meant
I need to vent, well here's my two cents
Don't leave me hanging on if you know it's wrong
It's all a riddle to me

Show me a sign and give me reason to believe
Don't waste my time, just give me some kind of sign
Show me a sign and give me reason to believe
Before this all just fades away

Give me just some kind of sign
Give me just some kind of sign
Give me just some kind of sign
Give me just some kind of sign
'Cause I know that everything is changing
And I feel like you always leave me hanging
Don't leave me hanging on
Don't leave me hanging on
Don't leave me hanging on
If you know it's wrong
If you know it's wrong
If you know it's wrong

Show me a sign and give me reason to believe
Don't waste my time, just give me some kind of sign
Show me a sign and give me reason to believe
Before this all just fades away
Give me just some kind of sign
Give me just some kind of sign
Before this all just fades away
