

Breathe, Jonah

You walk in at all hours of day, and the night
No matter what you do you always think you're right
See it my way, go and try
Have you ever heard of honesty
Once bitten, twice shy
Don't you know you're taking liberties
Liberties of love
Liberties with my love
Liberties of love
Liberties with my love
Don't be fool enough to think I will stay around
Another lover is always there, waiting to be found
Yes, I will leave some day
So I can walk away with dignity
Just one thing, left to say
You won't be lonely with your vanity
Liberties of love
Liberties with my love
Liberties of love
Liberties with my love
I took so long to see the light, liberties...
Now I know you're wrong from right, libeties...
1/2 verse
Chorus out
