

Breathe, Will The Circle Be Unbroken

Like a desert blooms with new fallen rains,
Like joy you bring me makes me live just the same,
Like a northern star that shines through the night,
The peace you offer feels so right, I can't live...
Without your love, without your love, if you were to leave me now,
I would be lost somehow, without your love...
As mother nature makes her seasons go by,
Both our lives are just as deeply entwined,
All the ocean's waters flow into one,
Just like this union we've begun, I can't live...
Without your love, without your love,
Without your love, without your love,
If you were to leave me now, I would be lost somehow.
Without your love, one empty space, one fear that I could never face.
Without your love, those silent tears, those are the payment for your years.
Without your love, I'd lose my way, I'd never see the light of day.
Without your love, I could never trust this way again.
Without your love, without your love.
Without your love, without your love.
Without your love, without your love. (repeat to fade)
