

Bree Sharp, Last Of Me

Once there was a time when I could say

I was your friend and you were mine

But all that's history

I'll never know the reason why you thought

That you could hang me out to dry
For everyone to see

Did you think that I'd lay down ?
That I wouldn't sweat it ?

You can forget it
Did you think I'd keep it down ?

You better watch your back

I'm coming after you

So you better face the fact

Cause my mind's a single track
You're gonna get your due

Single in the guarantee :

You ain't see the last of me

Pictures of our tiny hands

Playing castles or some beach's sands

Are lost to crueller games

Nicer memories now reside
In twisted metal on the highway side

It's all gone up in flames

That I would just let you win ?
Did you think that I would cry ?
Did you think that I would die ?

I'm just beginning

And you better watch your back
I'm coming after you

So you better face the fact

You're gonna get your due
Cause my mind's in a single track

Single in the guarantie

You ain't see the last of me
I'm not your friend

If you think that I'll be leaving

You better think again

I'll be here till I get even
I won't say where or when
Only that I guarantie
You ain't see the last of me
For every vicious deed you spend
Payback is your dividend
You can bet that you'll see me again...
