

Breed 77, Breaking The Silence (Acoustic)

Until the day I see your face
In the mirror
Until the day I smell your breath
On my pillow
Until the day I turn to grey
I will be calling
Until the day the lies come back
I'll be waiting here
I'll be waiting here
I'll be waiting here
I will be waiting

'Cause I was always inside
'Cause I was always inside

I am the one who fell to Earth
While lying on a cloud
I am the one who brought you truth
When you were living lies
I am the one who took the blame
For all your failings
I am the one who took the pain
That's why I'll be waiting here
I'll be waiting here
I'll be waiting here
I will be waiting

'Cause I was always inside
'Cause I was always inside
Was always inside
I was always inside
'Cause I was always inside

'Cause I was always inside
'Cause I was always inside
Was always inside
I was always inside
'Cause I was always inside
Was always inside
Was always inside
