

Breeze, Just A Feeling

Just a feeling i have, just a feeling
Just a feeling i have. Would you love me like that?
And if you love somebody else,
will you still pretend you're mine?
Would you leave me like that?
It's just a feeling i have.
Sometimes i lie awake while your are sleeping.
I think of all the things that we've been through.
I can't deny suspicious minds,
seeing things that don't exist.
Would you love me like that?
It's just a feeling i have.
It doesn't feel the same the way you hold me.
Sometimes you turn away when i kiss your lips.
And if you love somebody else,
will you still pretend you're mine.
Would you love me like that?
It's just a feeling i have.
Just a feeling i have.
Just a feeling.
Just a feeling i have.
Would you love me like that?
It's just a feeling i have.
There are times when words can take new meaning.
And all the sweetest things can sound the same.
And there are thousand ways to say goodbye i haven't heard.
Would you tell me like that?
It's just a feeling i have.
Just a feeling i have.
Just a feeling.
Just a feeling i have.
Would you love me like that?
It's just a feeling i have.
And if you love somebody else,
will you still pretend you're mine.
Would you love me like that?
It's just a feeling i have.
Just a feeling i have.
Just a feeling.
Just a feeling i have.
Would you love me like that?
It's just a feeling i have.
