Brenda Lee, If You Go Away

If you go away on this summer day Then you might as well take the sun away All the birds that flew in the summer sky When our love was new and our heart were high When the day was young and the night was long And the moon stood still for the night bird song If you go away, if you go away, if you go away

But if you stay I'll make you a day Like no day has been or will be again We'll sail on the sun we'll ride on the rain We'll talk to the trees, worship the wind But if you go I'll understand Leave me just enough love to fill my hand If you go away, if you go away, if you go away

If you go away as I know you will You can tell the world to stop turning till You return again if you ever do Oh what good is love without loving you Can I tell you now as you turn to go I'll be dying so till our next hello If you go away, if you go away, if you go away

But if you stay I'll make you a night Like no night has been or will be again I'll sail on your smile I'll ride on your touch I'll talk to your eyes that I love so much But if you go, go on I won't cry Though the good is gone from the word goodbye If you go away, if you go away

If you go away as I know you must There'll be nothing left in the world to trust There'll be an empty room full of empty space Just like the empty look I see on your face Oh I had been the shadow of your shadow If I thought it might keep me by your sight If you go away, if you go away, if you go away
