Brenda Lee, My Whole World Is Falling Down

(J.Crutchfield, B.Anderson)

My whole world is falling down, falling down, falling down My whole world is falling down, I'm losing my baby

Told me that your love for me was true Said you'd love me your whole life through But now you're asking me to set you free You've found some body you love more than me

My whole world is falling down, falling down, falling down My whole world is falling down, I'm losing my baby

I miss your loving that was so fine I need it, I need it all of the time For I still love you in the same old way Yet I'm losing you a little every day

My whole world is falling down, falling down, falling down My whole world is falling down, I'm losing my baby

My whole world is falling down, falling down, falling down My whole world is falling down, I'm losing my baby
