

Brenda Lee, (There's) Always Something There To

I walk along the city street,
You use to walk along with me
And every step I take recalls
How much in love we use to be
Oh how can I forget you
When there is always something there to remind me
Always something there to remind me

I was born to love you
And I will never be free
You'll always be a part of me ooooh

When shadows fall I pass a small caf
Where we would dance at night
And I can't help recalling
How it felt to kiss and hold you tight
Oh how can I forget you
When there is always something there to remind me
Always something there to remind me

I was born to love you
And I will never be free
You'll always be a part of me ooooh

If you should find you miss the sweet
And tender love we use to share
Just come back to the places
Where we use to go and I'll be there
Oh how can I forget you
When there is always something there to remind me
Always something there to remind me

I was born to love you
And I will never be free

When there is always something there to remind me
Always something there to remind me
Always something there to remind me
