

Brenda Song, Open Up Your Eyes

Ooooooh

Some time at night I feel so all alone

Then I close my eyes and they (they)

How wished the world to live my best one

But I wont lose my faith and say

Open up your eyes to see

There are lonely hearts in me

Don't u walk away from all the tears today

And don't there is nothing (ooh yeah)

Give a little hope you will see (oooh)

Open up your eyes to see (yeah yeah)

There are lonely hearts in me

Don't u walk away (don't you walk away) in all the tears today

Pretend there is nothing (oh yeah)

Give a little hope in

Your eyes will see

Put a smile in every face

Let the sun worm up the place in our hearts

Help the children not to cry

To make them safe

Open up your eyes to see

There are lonely hearts in me

Don't u walk away (don't you walk away) in all the tears today

Pretend there is nothing (oh yeah eh yeah)

Give a little bit hope in

Your eyes will see (your eyes will see)
