Brenton Wood, Catch You On The Rebound

You been gone now almost a year and ask me to forget and forgive later baby catch you on the rebound rebound

You didn't even write me or drop me a postcard now you want to come back and make a new start later baby

catch you on the rebound rebound

ooh you were the first love that i ever had but you been gone so long now i dont feel so bad later baby

catch you on the rebound rebound

I was hoping and praying that I see the day when I could tell you to your face later baby catch you on the rebound rebound