

Brett Dennen, Make You Crazy

You know its hard to be yourself, free yourself, to see yourself
When all around you there are lies just to get you,
Spies just to get you, to buy so they can get you
There are cameras in the sky, lasers in our living rooms
There are wolves watching wearing sheeps costumes
Its enough to make you go crazy (Woah)
Its enough to make you mad
Its enough to make you go crazy (Woah)
And Im amazed I havent yet
Isnt it a shame the way we cheat each other, treat each other,
beat each other?
Its a shame the way we use one other, abuse one another,
and screw one another, its true.
They will lock you up in prison but they wont call it slavery
There are stolen children raised and trained in armies
Its enough to make you go crazy (Woah)
Its enough to make you mad
Its enough to make you go crazy (Woah)
And Im amazed I havent yet
Dont hesitate to speak your mind (Speak your mind)
Never hesitate to speak your heart (Speak your heart)
Theyll call you crazy when you speak your mind (When you speak your mind)
So never, never hesitate (Never hesitate)
Cause its enough to make you go crazy (Woah)
Its enough to make you mad
Its enough to make you go crazy (Woah)
And Im amazed I havent yet
Na sol then go lock you for prison
Na sol then go beat you for prison
Them no call it slavery
Its him that make me vex
Na sol then go lock you for prison
Na sol then go beat you for prison
Its him that make me vex
Its him that make me crazy
Its enough to make you go crazy (Woah)
Its enough to make you mad
Its enough to make you go crazy (Woah)
And Id be crazy not to care
