

Brettell, Can't Believe That She's In Trouble

oh no, whats this a girl i know, is up to something new this girl, i know, i sit next to almost everyday

oh no, whats this
i'm the one who is liked caught in the middle so i turn my head the thoughts of the stupid things we've done and ...

(ahh) i cant believe that she is trouble i just cant believe what she has done i... just believe shes in trouble suppose there's a first time for everythin

oh no, whats this
shes ran away and i'm left in the middle so i risk my turn but here iam, i've made it right saying ...

I can't believe that your in trouble i never meant to be in the wrong i just can't believe that your in trouble sure there 's a first for everything they've done the rest for you i've tried to be with you i want the best for you she knows the stories true
