

Brettell, Complicated Lessons

her name is Lessa Laws
she tries, very hard indeed and if, you had an idea of what this is all about.
Lessa, who has bright blonde hair was an, airhostess before before, she started teachin the class ITT.
ITT, the lesson she teach its really hard to learn the coursework we hate we're trying our best but all we seem to get are 'E's'

tell me

why do you have go and the make the lesson so complicated, we're not that clever.
in fact I didn't even get the right grade criteria so why am I here cause im great, and I take everythin that I need for this course now honestly and fluently did help me a bit, no no no coursework, what's that all about pointless, like Robin's lessons wish that she wouldn't move us 5 boys form the back Lee found a cheat for Sunday league...

'thats it, move from those back seats' she says, in a mood, that we hate.
Lessa hates us,
she really really does,
we don't know why
we're gonna fail our exam's.

tell us

why do you have go and the make the lesson so complicated,
we're not that clever.
me and Simon didn't even get the right grade criteria so why are we here cause we're great, and we take everythin that we need for this course now honestly and fluently did help us a bit, well why not.
