

Brettell, Deal With It

I thought I was wrong
And you were right
I was willing to sacrifice
But then realised
I was the one who was in the right
I am a man
And not a boy
There are just something's
I have to deal with and face with
That's the way
This is the way its going
Sometimes I need to chill
I'm not taking the wrong pills
You're the one with the crazy thoughts
Which were taught to you by who?
Is it someone I knew?
