

Brettell, Eye Spy, With Tears In My Eyes

Close your eyes and think of me
There goes my fears
Here come your tears
Think of me when your sleepin sound
Don't pretend that I have no say
You just can't have it all your own way

I need someone, anyone
Who likes me for who I am
Look at me standing here, here standing on my own again
Just give me a chance, thats all I ask
Is that too much to ask
I could be anyone I want to be, don't stand in my way
But lucky for you, I like the person that I am
Anyone else just wouldn't be me
So your gonna first have to like me for who I am
