

Brettell, Hardest Thing To Talk About

I just know what I want to say to you
But the words don't come out of my mouth
I just hope you know how I'm feeling
This is such a hard thing to talk about

And the pain is running right through my fingers
And I'm not as shy as you may think
I just hope your not attracted to Simon
Why is this so hard to talk about?

What's the point in writing theses lyrics?
Cause I can't get you off my mind
All I want from you is to be friends
I can't believe I'm doing this for you; I must really really like you

People think we make a good couple
But like I said, I just want to be friends
Friends who stick together forever
Hope you can understand where I'm coming from

This is such a hard thing to talk about
This is such a hard thing to talk about
This is such a hard thing to talk about
