

Brettell, I've Got So Much On My Mind

Thinking, what's going on with her
Or more like I'm loosing out
I like her all the same
But who knows, the feelings that I'm feeling
You never ever believe me
I like her all the same

But I've got so much on my mind
I've got so much on my ' mind
Ahh I've got so much on my mind
I've got so much on, I've got so much on '

She has, something that my heart wants
But I don't have an answer that
I'm like her all the same
I wait, for the things I want to hear
But it don't come easily
I like her all the same

But I've got so much on my mind
I've got so much on my ' mind
Ahh I've got so much on my mind
I've got so much on, I've got so much on '

I think that, she lost it on the underground
So much so, I forgot that
I like her all the same

But I've got so much on my mind
I've got so much on my '
Ahh I've got so much on my mind
I've got so much on, I've got so much on '

I have, got to stop trying
It gives the wrong impression that
I like her all the same
It gave the wrong impression that
I liked her all the day
